

MISS PRETTY GIRLS WHO SERVE

THE NEW BEAUTY ISSUE

THE WORLD HAS A BEAUTY ISSUE

FIND YOUR PRETTY IN CHRIST

CONTESTANT CAMPAIGN GUIDE • PART 2

Your cover story. Your platform. Your purpose.

Miss Pretty Girls Who Serve • The New Beauty Issue • 2027

WELCOME, PRETTY GIRL

You are officially part of the issue

The world has a beauty issue—and this campaign is your opportunity to show what beauty looks like when faith, identity, purpose, service, and impact lead the story.

This experience is not asking you to become someone else. It is inviting you to become more intentional about the woman God created you to be and the way you use your voice to help someone else.

Your story You do not need a perfect testimony. Share only what is safe, honest, and appropriate for a public audience.	Your sisters Encourage, connect, and collaborate. Another contestant’s light does not dim yours.
Your service Make your platform practical. Tell people what action you want to inspire—not only what issue you care about.	Your standard Be on time, check the portal and email, meet deadlines, communicate early, and represent Christ with care.

REMEMBER Everyone who completes the published campaign requirements in good standing is eligible for a participation/recommendation letter. Verified service hours are recorded only for qualifying, documented activities approved by EFF.

YOUR CAMPAIGN PROMPT

The 40-point cover story

There is no required minimum or maximum length. Make this you. A focused 90 seconds to 3 minutes is only a helpful recommendation.

The world has a beauty issue. What lie about beauty, identity, or worth have you had to unlearn, what does God say instead, and how will you use your voice, service, and platform to help another young woman find her pretty in Christ?

WHAT JUDGES CONSIDER	POINTS	ASK YOURSELF
Christ-centered theme	10	What did the world tell me? What truth from God replaced it?
Authenticity + story	10	Is this specific, honest, safe to share, and recognizably mine?
Service + action	10	How will I help another woman or community because of this truth?
Creativity + communication	10	Is my message clear, intentional, accessible, and memorable?

You can create...

- A beauty-magazine cover story or “behind the cover” monologue.
- A mirror conversation between the world’s labels and God’s truth.
- Spoken word, devotional, documentary, interview, prayer, art, original music, fashion editorial, or service story.
- Something no one has seen before. Be creative—as long as it is respectful, truthful, safe, and yours to use.

CONTENT SAFETY

Use only music, photos, clips, and people you own or have permission to include. Do not share private details about another person, a minor, your school account, your home, or sensitive documents.

BUILD YOUR PROFILE

Seven checks before Publish

- 2. Confirm the public name you want supporters to see.

Your points Shows each rubric category after staff records it. Pending means it has not been entered yet.	Your votes Shows verified/provisional status. Final placement waits for the September 4 audit.

CAMPAIGN WEEK

Post with purpose, not pressure

You will receive your official contestant announcement and voting graphics during Queen Training/campaign preparation.

Your official launch checklist

- Verify your name, school, headshot, dates, and official link before posting.
- Post your campaign video to Instagram and paste that public post/Reel link into your portal profile.
- Use the official voting link connected to your contestant profile—not screenshots, cash apps, or personal payment links.
- Explain that each eligible $2.50 vote is a donation supporting the scholarship competition and Esther Funds Foundation’s mission.
- Share your platform, service, faith, gratitude, and real impact. Do not insult, compare, or misrepresent another contestant.
- Stop all vote requests when voting closes September 3 at 11:59 PM ET.

CAPTION FRAMEWORK

“The world has a beauty issue—and this is my cover story. [One sentence about your truth and platform.] Watch my campaign video and, if my message speaks to you, vote with purpose through my official link. Every eligible $2.50 vote supports the scholarship competition and EFF’s student-success mission. Totals remain provisional until the audit.”

You may create additional graphics in the approved style. Do not alter the official logo, invent prizes or dates, imply school endorsement, or claim that votes are personal gifts to you.

VOTING TRANSPARENCY

Good campaign language

- “Vote through my official link if my platform speaks to you.”
- “Your eligible vote supports the competition and EFF’s mission to help prevent college dropouts.”
- “Thank you for watching, sharing, praying, serving, or voting.”

Do not say

- “Send money directly to me.”
- “I already won,” “I am guaranteed a scholarship,” or any unverified placement claim.
- Anything that attacks another contestant, pressures a donor, or misstates the rules.

FIND YOUR PRETTY

Faith with honesty and support

You can be a woman of faith and still need rest, community, counseling, medical care, accommodations, or help.

When fear speaks Name the fear, identify the truth, take one wise next step, and ask for support.	When comparison speaks Bless another woman without reducing yourself. Sisterhood is not a ranking.
When perfection speaks Excellence means prepared and honest—not flawless, overworked, or unsafe.	When shame speaks Your story belongs to you. You choose what is safe to share publicly and what stays private.

Suggested scriptures to study: Psalm 139:14 · Ephesians 2:10 · Romans 12:2 · 1 Peter 3:3–4 · Song of Solomon 4:7.

NEED SUPPORT NOW?

The program offers faith-centered community, mentorship, and advocacy preparation—not therapy or emergency care. For immediate danger call 911. For a mental-health crisis call or text 988.
